

School Uniform

The School uses the Tesco Uniform Embroidery Service, and they donate 5% cash of every item you buy through the service to the school.

Burton Salmon has a simple and distinctive code of school dress which all pupils are encouraged to wear and is fully supported by governors, staff and parents. Wearing school dress makes an important contribution to the tone and reputation of the school and gives the pupils a sense of belonging and identity. We encourage all pupils to take pride in their appearance and seek the co-operation of parents in this matter.
